FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kids-N-Hope Foundation Raises Nearly $15,000 in First Bingo Event of 2026

Fundraising Efforts Support Local Pediatric Health and Life Services

PHILADELPHIA – March 30, 2026 –The Kids-N-Hope Foundation ("The Foundation") raised over $14,700 during its first Purse & Power Tool Bingo event of 2026. 211 attendees enjoyed a night full of bingo, raffles, and time with friends and family all while supporting the Foundation's mission to fund music therapy programs and other child life services for local hospitals and not-for-profit organizations, such as Children's Hospital of Philadelphia ("CHOP").

Attendees played twenty rounds of bingo in total, for a variety of designer purse and power tool prizes. This month's Bingo event marked The Foundation's first event for the year and has fundraising efforts off to a great start. The Foundation raised more than $644,000 in 2025, a direct reflection of the generosity of its supporters.

"We want to express our sincere gratitude to all our participants and volunteers who supported this month's bingo event," stated the Foundation's Founder and Chairman, Bruce K. Foulke. "We are deeply appreciative to everyone who continues to support the Foundation's mission to fund local pediatric health and life services, especially Music Therapy. Your generosity helps us to live out our mission and allow these critical services to be continued for our community. We hope to see you all at our upcoming Bingo event in April or other planned events later in the year."
